NOTICE

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

FALL 2016 – CSWEP ANNUAL DEPARTMENTAL SURVEY

For All Economics Departments without Ph.D. Programs (including Liberal Arts Colleges)

Forms or Questions to Shelly Lundberg, CSWEP Chair; UC Santa Barbara, North Hall 2127, Santa Barbara CA 93106-9210
cswep@econ.ucsb.edu

Part 1: Business School Screen

Is your department a Business and Economics Department with more Business than Economics professors?

☐ Yes (No further data is required. You may send in your survey now.)

☐ No (Please complete the remainder of the survey.)

Part 2: Faculty

For the purposes of this survey, tenure track faculty are those who hold voting rights in your department and carry titles such as Assistant Professor, Associate Professor or Full Professor. Non-tenure track faculty are typically teaching faculty who hold multi-year contracts and carry titles such as Professor of the Practice; or Adjunct, Instructor, Lecturer or Visiting Professor – please distinguish full-time from part-time. Any additional full-time instructors not counted by tenure track or non-tenure track faculty count as all other full-time instructors, e.g. tenure track faculty whose primary, voting appointment is in a different department, but who teach economics.

This is for the 2016-17 academic year. Indicate the numbers of Female and Male faculty in each position:
