NOTICE

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

Default Question Block

PART 1: BUSINESS SCHOOL SCREEN

Is your department a Business and Economics Department with more Business than Economics professors?

If you answer "Yes" then no further data is required. You may exit the survey by clicking the >> button at the bottom of the page.

If you answer "No" then please complete the remainder of the survey.

☐ Yes

☐ No

PART 2: FACULTY

This survey distinguishes tenure track faculty from non-tenure track faculty.

For the purposes of this survey, tenure track faculty are those who hold voting rights in your department and carry titles such as Assistant Professor, Associate Professor or Full Professor.

Non-tenure track faculty are typically teaching faculty who hold multi-year contracts such as Professor of the Practice; or Adjunct, Instructor, Lecturer or Visiting Professor. In this category, please distinguish full time from part-time, a new item this year.*

Any additional full-time instructor not counted as tenure track or non-tenure track faculty counts as all other full-time instructors, e.g. tenure track faculty whose primary, voting appointment is in a different department, but who teach economics.

This is for the 2018-19 academic year. Indicate the numbers of Female and Male faculty in each position:
